Click on the KHAN Academy Icon.

It will take a minute and then you will be on the Khan Academy page where the video is located.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Khan Academy website. The address bar shows the URL: <https://www.khanacademy.org/math/arithmetic/multiplication-division/mult-div-concept/v/the-idea-of-division>. The navigation bar includes links for LEARN, COACH, ABOUT, and DONATE, along with the KHANACADEMY logo, a search bar, and LOGIN and SIGN UP buttons. The main content area is titled "The idea of division" and features a video player. The video player shows a grid of 24 red, triangular objects arranged in 4 rows and 6 columns. To the right of the grid, the equation $24 \div 12 = 2$ is written in red and yellow. A play button is centered over the video. The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with the following items: ARITHMETIC AND PRE-ALGEBRA, MULTIPLICATION AND DIVISION, Concept of multiplication and division, Intro to multiplication, Multiplication as groups of objects, More on the concept of multiplication, The idea of division, and Next section: Basic multiplication.
