Kairos	Serving Jackson Care Connect youth ages 0-24. We employ a team approach involving a therapist, skills coach, and peer and family support. We offer psychiatric services when appropriate or requested. Services are tailored to the youth and family needs at the time of assessment. Ongoing assessment occurs in collaboration with the youth, family, and those serving the child to choose, plan, evaluate, and change services as needed. Whenever possible, accommodations are made to meet the needs of the youth and family. Services are flexible and can occur in an office setting or be delivered "in-place" (e.g., school, home, or community). Services can also include Interval, a respite home option for youth age 4 to 17 who are experiencing emotional or behavioral crisis and need a brief "break" from their regular living situation. Interval is designed for planned respite of one to three days.
