Empowering Early Education (E3)

Please consider joining this 6-week mini-cohort to give yourself a mental boost and be more aware of what you bring to your job every day! This E3 Series opportunity is specific to Jackson and Josephine Counties in Southern Oregon. Spaces are limited! Only 6 persons per cohort on a first come, first serve basis. You must commit to attend all 6 sessions in order to receive the incentives!

This E3 (Empowering Early Education) cohort series challenges you to reinvigorate and refresh yourself to better support the families and children with whom you work. We all know that social emotional health and competence is key to children thriving. It's key for adults as well. It's vital to take the time to fill our own cups so we have enough to offer support and care to so many. Recruitment opportunities for April and May will be emailed – so please check your email and spam filter!
